

Code of Conduct - Players

Lochend Football Academy is fully committed to safeguarding and promoting the wellbeing of all its players. The Academy believes that it is important that you should always show respect and understanding for the safety and welfare of others. As a player, you are encouraged to always be open and honest and to share any concerns that you might have, with your coach.

As a player of Lochend Football Academy you are expected to abide by the following Code of Conduct:

- Always work hard to learn, improve and play to the best of your ability
- Respect Academy property, kit, training equipment and Academy facilities
- Respect, listen and respond to instructions from your coach
- Respect club officials, fellow team mates and your opponents
- Respect the decisions of the games
- Make sure you are on time for training and matches
- Let your coach know if you have sustained any injury before or during Academy activities
- Always be kind to your fellow team mates and opponents
- NEVER use any bad language or display disrespectful behaviour
- Play by the rules and always respect the referee
- Shake hands with the other team and referee at the end of the game