About our Child Protection Officer

Our Child Wellbeing and Child Protection Officer is Jim McAllister. Jim lives in Stirling and is married with 4 grown up children and 6 grandchildren, with a 7th on the way! He has been a Stirling Albion fan since coming to Stirling in 1985 and his sons and grandson have followed his passion for supporting the local football team. Jim retired as a Principal Teacher with Stirling Council in August 2021 and brings his knowledge of child development, education and wellbeing to his role as Child Wellbeing and Child Protection Officer for the Foundation and the Football Club.

His role includes a wide variety of areas connected with the wellbeing and protection of children, including.

Ensuring that all adults who are engaged with the club to carry out regulated work with children or adults are vetted and have the correct PVG (Protection of Vulnerable Groups) Certificate

Ensuring that all adults who are working with children at the club have an up-to-date training record regarding Children's Wellbeing in Scottish Football.

Deal with all notes of concern as outlined in the SFA policy for dealing with concerns about children or vulnerable adults

Attend SFA Regional Network meetings and ensure that all information and training requirements are put in place.

Ensure that the club's Child Wellbeing and Child Protection Policy is kept up to date.

Jim is the chair of the Foundation among other duties such as working with the Head of Youth Development, Stirling Albion Youth Development and Stirling Albion Junior Academy

Reporting to the Club Chairperson, who has responsibility on the club board, on all matters relating to Child Wellbeing and Child Protection.
